

Staying On Course (1)
All Roads Lead to Rome
Acts 25:1-27

Outline

1. Paul appeals to Caesar so as to get to Rome (25:1-12)

Truth #1:

2. Festus asks for advice from the visiting Agrippa (25:13-22)

Truth #2:

3. Festus arranges for Paul to appear before Agrippa (25:23-27)

Truth #3:

Questions for Reflection

- i. We can be fixated in the way we think & serve God. When is this fixation good & when is it bad?
- ii. Share an incident in your life when you felt the same frustration as Paul when he was still under the rule of Felix & Festus?
- iii. Paul's way of getting to Rome was different from God's way of leading him there. Give other examples from the Book of Acts to show how God's ways differ from man's ways.
- iv. How can my faith in & ministry for the Lord not be affected by other people who may be serving their own agenda?

Dn Lim Chien Chong
13 October 2024